Intersession Week is this week in Birmingham City Schools – Jan. 3 – 5. Classes are from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. daily.

Here’s what parents and students should know...

What is Intersession?

Intersession is a period between two academic terms. In Birmingham City Schools, the second 9-week grading period ends Dec. 17, 2021. The next grading period starts on Jan. 10, 2022.

What does it mean?

There will be no regular school classes Jan. 3 – 5. Parents should not bring their children to school if their children are not participating in intersession. There will be no regular classes or intersession on Jan. 6 – 7, which are a PD Day and a teacher workday.

What are the options for my child?

Birmingham City Schools is offering a variety of classes to help remediate and challenge students.

How do we learn more and register for intersession?

View the online application here. Click here to view the program booklet. Call your local school if you still have questions.

Where will the programs be hosted?

All intersession programs will be hosted at your child's designated school location.

Will meals be served to students who participate in intersession?

Students who participate in intersession will be served breakfast and lunch.

What are the plans for after-school care for students who participate in intersession?

After-school care, with continued activities, will be available from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. for intersession participants in grades K-5.

Will transportation be available?

Transportation will be available and buses will follow their typical routes. Students who traditionally walk to school will use this same mode during intersession. Parents who transport their children to specialty schools during the typical school week should continue transporting their children during intersession.
