About Us

The Doris Pearl Memorial Scholarship offers a one-time $500 book stipend to any student attending a Historically Black College or University (HBCU). The student must display academic achievement, commitment to serving others in school, their community, or at home, have a strong work ethic, and leadership qualities. To receive this award students must provide proof of enrollment to an HBCU for the fall semester.

The Award

- The intent of this award is to provide students with a one-time book stipend.
- The DPM Scholarship award ranges from $500 to $1,000 yearly.
- All scholarships will be paid directly to the students account after receiving proof of full-time enrollment at an HBCU.
- High school seniors entering college are eligible to apply for the scholarship.

Scholarship Checklist

- Submit a 1,000 - word essay detailing:
(1) why you desire to attend an HBCU and
(2) how receiving the $500 book stipend will assist in achieving your academic goals.
- Minimum of 3.0 grade point average on a 4.0 scale
- Application
- Two letters of recommendation from a teacher or mentor
