

Intercession Week is this week in Birmingham City Schools. Oct. 4 –8. Classes are from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. daily.

Here's what parents and students should know...

What is Intercession?

Intercession is a period between two academic terms. In Birmingham City Schools, the first 9- week grading period ends Oct. 1st. The next grading period starts on Oct. 12.

What are the options for my child?

Birmingham City Schools is offering a variety of classes to help remediate and challenge students.

If my child does not attend intercession classes, what are my options?

Intercession is the only option being offered by Birmingham City Schools next week. The schools will not be open for regular classes.

What are the plans for after-school care for students who participate in intercession?

After-school care, with continued activities, will be available from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. for intercession participants in grades K-5.

What does it mean?

There will be no regular school classes Oct. 4 –8. Parents should not bring their children to school if their children are not participating in intercession. There will be no regular classes or intercession on Oct. 11, which is a teacher workday.

How do we learn more and register for intercession?

Click here to view the program booklet in English or in Spanish and register. Call your local school if you still have questions.

Will meals be served to students who participate in intercession?

Students who participate in intercession will be served breakfast and lunch .

Will transportation be available?

Transportation will be available and buses will follow their typical routes for grades K-5. Students who traditionally walk to school will use this same mode during intercession. Parents who transport their children to specialty schools during the typical school week should continue transporting their children during intercession. Additional bus routes will be set for students in middle grades 6-8 and high school students in grades 9-12 who will be attending intercession at hub sites.
